How about you?

- In charge of team member's development?
- Lean leader?
- Taken an online class before?

It's all fun and games....

- How did you learn?
- Practice round?
- Why play again and again?

Today's purpose

Discover ways you can leverage LEI's online modules to train and inspire your own teams to “play lean” at work.

How are we going to do that?

Agenda:

1. Look at a new course
2. Deep dive into one module

When doing XYZ:

- Do this!
- And this...
- Don't forget....

And this key point!

What was different?

When touring a Model Line:

- Encourage curiosity and discovery.
- Promote applying principles of lean situationally.
- Connect to problems they experience in their own work.
- Highlight improvement efforts linked to things customers value.
- Focus on the principles behind the change more than the change itself.

Prioritize motivation (especially at the beginning)!

Theory

Transfer

1. Look at new course
2. Deep dive into one module
- 3. Discuss how we could leverage these modules

How to build off the practice round?

RULES
CHESS

Three ways to use these modules

1

Complete entire course to level set you and your team with basic understanding.

2

Complete a module, go apply the learning to your work, then return to next module.

Chapter 1: Observe

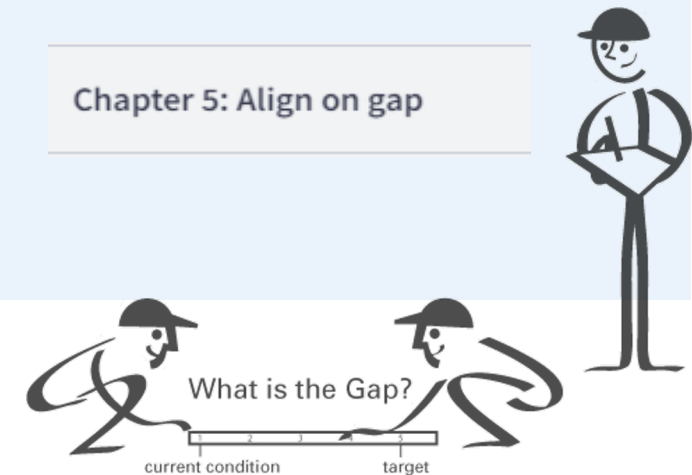

Go observe your own work processes

Chapter 2: Capture

3

Pull on modules as needed—when related to a current problem you're experiencing.

Chapter 5: Align on gap

Key Points

- Have a playful mindset
- LEI modules as a
 - space that allows for learning to occur
 - practice round
 - flexible collection of lessons
